Note and Comments from the treasurer to AIMA Finances Verification Committee
Report on AIMA 2024 finances

I have been elected as Treasurer on may 9 2024, as well as the new Finances Verification Committee.
For files transmission and bank signature, we had a meeting on June 25 in Paris with our AIMA Bank manager and past treasurer Pierre Del Porto acting now as Finances adviser out of the AIMA EC .

During the year 2024, we have registered 23 individuals members (versus 40 in 2023, important decrease) and 15 institutional (versus 15 in 2023) total 38 members 2024 from 17 countries (*) versus 55 members in 2023. .
More details on countries, members, evolution, have been displayed during each of the the EC meetings.

The Expenses :

Only one expense this past year : annual fees for managing the website for 101 euros .
Paypal charges paid year 2024 for a total of 23,14 euros.
Past treasurer negotiated no annual bank charges this year .

The Revenue

Membership fees : all collected during 2024 but are concerning sometimes different passed years : 860 euros (versus 1140 for 2023, important decrease).
No donation this year .

The Result is positive this year 2024 with +727,86 euros.
AIMA has not yet received the presentation of financial results from the CIMA congress held in India October 2023 and AIMA sponsored (3000 euros), requested different times and during General Assembly may 24.

The bank account stays safe with 4206,59 euros on 31 dec 2024.
The Finances Committee has to be informed that our PAYPAL account has been reopened 19 march 2024 after a long period of Paypal administrative inquiry to control identity of different AIMA responsibles, which takes months to collect in 2023 and to produce. Paypal always collected registrations but treasurer could not transfer the money from Paypal AIMA account to AIMA bank account from early december 2023 until march 2024 .

The AIMA treasurer,
Edouard de Laubrie
